favoring a vigorous prosecution of the Chinese war, the government issued orders quickening the dispatch of reinforcements to Admiral Courbet and Gen. DeLisle.

AWAITING THE REINFORCEMENT.
PARIS, Nov. 29.—Premier Ferry has abandoned all hope of a successful issue of the mediation of England between China and France.

The Telegraphe says: There will be no further diplomatic negotiations with China nor any father military or naval operations in the East until the force of 15,000 reinforcements shall have arrived on the field of operations. In the early spring an attack is designed upon Canton by the French land and naval forces.

has applied to the war office for more troops and officers.

The Army and Navy Gazette states that he urgently demand thirty subalterns. The authorities do not know where to find them. Private letters from English officers at Wady Haifa state that there is considerable sickness among the men of the Nile expedition. The whale boats have been forced up the Nile at a terrible cost of time and labor.

A letter also states that Gen. Wolseley intends to abandon the river route and try a land march for Debbeh. The collection of munitions for the army at Dongola is so slow that the march collection of munitions for the army at Dongola is so slow that the march on Khartoum is considered improbable before February. It is reported at Wady Halfa that Gen. Gorden and his forces are in the most imminent danger from want of anmunition, and the general has been consequently obliged to withdraw his advanced lines, in order to act strictly on the defensive.

THE CONGO CONFERENCE.

BERLIN, Nov. 29 .- The Congo conterence committee have finally agreed on the details of their report, which was hitherto undecided, including the questions of the duties to be imposed questions of the duties to be imposed upon imports and exports. At the plenary sitting Monday the committee will censuler the points relating to the freedom of navigation of the Congo and Niger rivers. Crown Prince Frederick William and his wife will give a banquet to the delegates Monday. The Senior College of merchants give the delegates a banquet in the Boarse building Tuesday. Prince Bismarck is much annoyed at the publicity given the proceedings, but publicity given the proceedings, but the conference intends to publish the daily details of the proceedings in the official Gazette.

Berlin, Nov 29.—A joint French and German declaration has been prepared and will be presented at the next session of the Congo conference, proposing to place the river Niger and the country adjacent under the agents. proposing to place the river Niger and the country adjacent under the same regime as that adopted by the Congo country, but limiting the scope of the international committee to those regions of the Niger river where some form of government has been established. The English delegates have prepared a counter project, which affirms the English guarantee for free trade and protected navigation of the Niger, which they claim should be sufficient. The English delegates also state that the international commission has no power or authority in any part has no power or authority in any part of the Niger country under English SYMPATHY FOR THE MURDERESS, Panis, Nov. 29 .- Public sympathy for Madame Huguese, who shot her traducer day before yesterday, is intensified by the fact that both Mr. Huguese and his wife devotedly nursed the sufferers from cholera durnursed the sufferers from cholera dur-ing the prevalence of the epidemic at Marseilles. M. Paul deCassagnac, edi-tor of the Le Pays, considers the lady a heroine and urges the entire press to uphold her. She has asked the prison authorities that she may be provided with material for modeling in clay.

AN AMERICAN ARTIST DEAD. London, Nov. 29 .- James Edward

Freeman, the American artist, died at Rome, November 21.

James Freeman was born in Nova Scotia, this parents removed to New York state when he was quite young. The early part of his disclere to become an in artist, he made his way to New York eity and entered the National Academy of design, where he was in time made an academian. PARIS ALL AGOG.

Paris, Nov. 29 .- M. Huguese, in an interview, expressed confidence that his wife would be triumphantly seprison. Hundreds of cards from mem-bers of all political sections in Paris and a targe number of floral offerings are sent. Her two daughters are permitted to visit her. M. Huguese states that his wife kept him in ignorance of the cause of the tragedy, explaining her absence from home by telling him that she was preparing a bust for the salon. The public interest in the affair over-tops for the time even the political

CARL SCHURZ ON AMERICAN POLITICS.

LONDON, Nov. 29 -Carl Schurz has written a letter to Prof. Bryce upon the double working of the chambers of legislation in America. Mr. Schurz says that the popular judgment is right in regarding the double chamber right in regarding the double chamber as a necessary part of American political institutions. Any proposal to abolish these bodies would find no consideration in the United States. Americans are justly proud of their senate, which does not represent any privileged class or any separate interests, but is extremely useful as a part of the American legislative machinery. The letter from Schurz on this topic arcse from a reference by Prof. Brycs, asking him if he considered it advisable for England to continue the house of lords as a legislative body. body.

THE REDISTRIBUTION MILL.

Lowdon, Nov. 29 .- The government redistribution bill differs very much from the original draft of the ministers. It extends the principle of sin-gle members to equal electoral dis-tricts, raises the population as a stand-ard for constituency, and gives a great increase in the number of members from London and other populous cen-ters. The Radicals consider the alter-ations satisfactory. Chaplin and Lo-ther, Conservatives, are forming a group to oppose the present arrange-ment. ters. It extends the principle of sin-

Alexander Smith & Son's extensive carpet mills at Yonkers, N. Y., shut down yesterday for an indefinite time. The mill employs between three and four hundred hands. The suspension is due to the depression in trade. The authorities prevented the meet-ing between Charles Mitchell and John Gillesple at Pittsburg last night. A large crowd, representing every grade of society, was present. The r ceipts at the door amounted to $1200. It is estimated that the decrease in the public debt for November will not be much over $1,000,000. The de-crease is due to the reduction in the revenue for the month and the heavy payments on account of pensions of over $8,000,000.
